

Questionnaire

(Please sign your name in the back after finishing the questionnaire.)

	Question	Answer
Personal Information	Full Name
	Student ID
	Email Address
Educational Background	What is your current academic major or field of study?
	What year are you in your academic program (e.g., first year of master program, first year of PhD program, etc.)?
	Have you taken any previous courses related to cybersecurity or computer science? If yes, please provide the course names and brief descriptions.
Technical Proficiency	On a scale of 1 to 10 (1 being beginner, 10 being expert), how would you rate your overall technical skills?
	Have you had any experience with programming or scripting languages (e.g., Python, C++, etc.)? If yes, please specify.
	Are you familiar with basic networking concepts (e.g., IP addresses, ports, protocols)? Yes/No
	Have you ever worked with virtualization or virtual machines before? Yes/No
Security Awareness	Are you aware of common types of malware (e.g., viruses, worms, trojans)? Yes/No
	Have you ever encountered malware on your personal devices? Yes/No • If yes, please briefly describe the experience and how you dealt with it.
Course Expectations	What interests you the most about taking a "Malicious Code Analysis" course?
	What do you hope to achieve or learn from this course?
Additional Comments	Is there anything else you would like to share with the instructor about your background, experiences, or expectations for the course?
Consent	By submitting this questionnaire, you agree that the provided information may be used by the instructor for the purpose of improving the course experience and tailoring the content to students' backgrounds.

Thank you for taking the time to complete this questionnaire. Your input is valuable and will help us better understand your background and expectations for the "Malicious Code Analysis" course.

Signature: _____

Date: _____